Dear members of the NYS Commission on Legislation, Judicial and Executive Compensation:

This note is from one taxpayer in this great state of ours. I do "get it" that a pay raise for many state officials might well be in order - but think the reported 47% increase across the board is rather a tacky move, given our glum economy. The recommendation gives every appearance of greed, accompanied by arrogance and lack of character. Sadly, I remember how everyone used to have great respect for state officials.

Sincerely, Jane Stevens
