

patbucz to me

Jul 29

Do not give the NYS legislators any pay raise. They have not earned it. We read every day about the work that needs to be done for the citizens of this state and then we read about how little has been accomplished by those we elect to represent us. What are they doing day in and day out in Albany? I am especially concerned that they have refused to tackle ethics reform. Who ever heard of anyone getting a 47% raise? That is obscene. Pat Buczkowski