NEW YORK– The New York State Commission on Legislative, Judicial and Executive Compensation will hold a public meeting on November 26, 2019 at 3:00 p.m.. The meeting will take place at the New York City Bar Association, 42 W 44th Street. Additionally, two Commissioners will be attending the meeting remotely from SUNY System Administration, 353 Broadway, Albany, S429. Finally, a Commissioner will be attending the meeting remotely from 2396 Arthur Avenue (2nd Floor Office) Bronx, New York. All locations will be open to the public. The Commission does not plan on hearing any live witness testimony at the meeting.

All Commission meetings are open to the public. All meetings will also be viewable online via a live webcast. Information on remote viewing will be posted at <http://nyscommissiononcompensation.org>.

You may contact the Commission by email at nyscompensation@gmail.com or by regular mail at NYS Commission on Legislative, Judicial and Executive Compensation, 64 Beaver Street, Box 454, New York, NY 10004.

The Commission is an independent body tasked with examining, evaluating and making recommendations with respect to compensation for New York State’s judges, members of the state legislature and state officials named in section 169 of the Executive Law. The recommendations shall have the force of law unless modified or abrogated by legislation prior to taking effect. The Commission must make a recommendation as to judicial compensation by December 31, 2019. A separate report, relating to legislative and executive compensation, is due by November 15, 2020.

Every four years, the Commission is established with seven appointed members, three designated by the Governor, one by the President Pro Tempore of the New York State Senate, one by the Speaker of the New York State Assembly and two by the Chief Judge of the New York State Court of Appeals, one of whom serves as chair of the Commission.
